Peanutji Brand Story & Narrative

Pyar Jaisa Pure

Peanutji is the living expression of a simple yet powerful belief purity should feel personal. Rooted in the heartlands of Gujarat's Saurashtra region, where peanuts are not just a crop but a legacy, Peanutji was created to bridge Indian agricultural heritage with modern global standards.

The philosophy "Pyar Jaisa Pure" defines everything Peanutji stands for. It reflects care at every step, from nurturing soil health and empowering farmers to deploying advanced processing technologies and delivering products that meet the highest international benchmarks. Peanutji is not merely about peanuts; it is about trust, transparency, and responsibility. This philosophy has also inspired Peanutji Vedic, a breakthrough innovation that brings advanced nutritional science into everyday Indian cooking, without compromising traditional taste.

Represented by its friendly mascot Peanutji, the brand guides consumers and partners through its journey, explaining processes, showcasing quality checks, and reinforcing confidence. Every Peanutji product carries the assurance that it is crafted with the same honesty and warmth as food prepared for one's own family.

Testimonials & Industry Recognition

Through consistent performance and unwavering quality, Fishfa Agri World Ltd. and Peanutji have earned trust from buyers, distributors, and partners across domestic and international markets. Participation in leading global exhibitions has further strengthened brand recognition and credibility within the food and agri-export industry.

Rj viraj

My quest for purity brought me to the peanut plant in Rajkot, where Peanutji oil is produced. Every aspect of the process, from seed to seal, is handled with systematic care. The finest quality G20 groundnut seeds are meticulously sorted. With such a transparent process and pure oil, there is no need to be concerned about one's health.

Rj niyati

My health is of utmost importance to me, and as such, I generally try to avoid oil in my diet. However, when oil is necessary, I prefer Peanutji high oleic groundnut oil. The quality of groundnut oil is often determined by its levels of MUFA and PUFA, which are approximately 70% in Peanutji. The rigorous hygiene standards and the 11-stage sorting process contribute to the premium quality of Peanutji products.

Jagdish foods

We have evaluated various brands of oil and conducted TPC level tests for each. The TPC levels for other brands were consistently around or above 5, which is considered detrimental to health. However, Peanutji peanut oil exhibits a TPC level of approximately 2, which encourages me to utilize this product.

Yash papad

We produce papad and also manufacture namkeen snacks. We have experimented with various types of oils, including cottonseed and palm kernel oil, and have also tried different brands of groundnut oil. However, we were not entirely satisfied with the quality, which led me to revert to using palm oil. Ever since I came to know about peanutji I have been using Peanutji oil for a year now and am very satisfied with the quality of our products.

Chandravilas

At Chandravilas, we always try to use the best ingredients. The fafda-jalebi legacy started here, and to keep the food quality high, we prefer groundnut oil. But when frying fafda, the high smoke caused issues like burning eyes. A friend recommended Peanut Ji oil, and after trying it, I realized it's the solution to all my problems! It has a high smoke point, so it doesn't create smoke during deep frying, and we use less of it compared to other groundnut oils.
